HR Firm Joins the Easley Chamber

The Easley Chamber of Commerce welcomes Sherbert & Associates as a new member. Dr. Ed Sherbert, SPHR is the founder and president of Sherbert & Associates, an international human resources consulting firm located in Mauldin, SC. Existing since 1995, the firm helps organizations both large and small to develop their human resources function. Sherbert & Associates provides assistance with employee handbook content, affirmative action plans, performance appraisals, compensation programs, and compliance basics. The firm's clients include organizations from the following industries: manufacturing, healthcare, banking, public education, entertainment, non-profit, and retail.

In addition to consulting on a full-time basis, he serves as a member of the Writing Panel for PHR, SPHR, and GPHR examinations. Dr. Sherbert also provides supervisory training and management development workshops, and regularly accepts speaking engagements at conferences and professional organization meetings. Among his most requested topics are strategic human resources, employment law, handling employee conflict, sexual harassment, generations at work, and other employee workplace issues.
