Dr. Ed Sherbert, SPHR, will be conducting two workshops for South Carolina Non-Profit Organization on April 8th at the Hyatt Regency in Greenville, SC. The first workshop, titled "How to Be An Excellent Supervisor," focuses on the basics of good supervision: communication, organization, motivation, and self-evaluation. He will also be presenting a seminar titled "It's About Time," where he teaches participants how to control events before they control them, as well as how to get rid of the monkeys that end up on managers' backs. Dr. Sherbert is the president of Sherbert & Associates, a Mauldin-based human resources consulting firm. www.sherbertassociates.com
